

Health & Safety Risk Assessment

fact or fallacy?

Statement	True? False?	Comments
1. Everyone is legally responsible for risk assessing their own job
2. A risk assessment must include control measures
3. Risk Assessments must be reviewed every 12 months
4. If you have a risk assessment form covering the work that involved an accident, you can't be prosecuted
5. There have been very few prosecutions for failing to carry out a risk assessment
6. Risk assessment forms must be signed and dated to comply with the law
7. The recommendations in a risk assessment must be implemented within 3 calendar months
8. An employee can refuse to contribute to a risk assessment
9. The Health and Safety Executive must be sent copies of risk assessments
10. Risk assessments are not necessary if you have low accident rates		